

News:

AstraGene 2ul Sample

The Astra Gene's patented sample holder enables measurements to be taken straight through the pipette tip on sample volumes as small as 2 μ l. Complex sampling routines are avoided while sample integrity and user safety are maintained; samples can even be recovered after measurement for further analysis or processing. Dedicated to Life Science applications the Astra Gene spectrophotometer's intuitive software and unique sample handling makes measurement of DNA/RNA and Proteins a simple and rapid procedure.

